

CORRESPONDENCE.

Salisbury Scribbles.

Miss Bethel Lawrence of Fayette is visiting friends here and will remain some two weeks.

Rev. P. M. Sears went to Kansas City Tuesday to visit his sons who live at that place.

Rumors of a wedding with one of our butchers as chief man are heard on the street.

Street Commissioner Warson is cleaning up for the 4th and gives our city an improved appearance.

Geo. W. Welker has sold his residence property in H. N. Salisbury's first addition to Fred Lamb, the attorney.

William DeLapp and Miss Rebecca Warhurst were united in marriage Sunday, Rev. Watts officiating.

The corner-stone of the new Catholic church will be laid on the 4th and everybody should be here to witness it.

Spring chickens are ripe and protracted meetings are in order. Chickens and preachers go together, but usually as one.

The foundation work of the new dwelling now being erected by Postmaster McCurry is about completed and the carpenters will follow the stone-masons.

Word comes from Prairie Hill that Ben Hoyle is gradually improving and his friends hope for his recovery. His brother, Charles, came from Texas to be with him in his illness.

Geo. W. Welker has purchased the Garhart property, formerly owned by W. S. Stockwell in College Place addition, and now has one of the most desirable homes in the city.

Out lots, side streets and alleys are producing the finest crop of burdock ever seen here. If these pests are allowed to go to seed, the city will have to be abandoned next year. Will property owners and officials give this matter attention?

The street grader, drawn by a traction engine, is putting our streets in fine condition, but woe to old worn out crossings, and property owners on the sides of the street were ditches have been cut that will have to be bridged before the winter supplies can be restored.

Hon. Hon. Wm. Heathman, mayor of Huntsville, and nominee of the Randolph Democracy for representative, was in our city Thursday and made us a pleasant call. He says Randolph is moving in the direction of good roads and will hold a "good roads convention." Chariton ought to catch on and join her sister in this grand movement.

Brunswick Bubbles.

Brunswick will celebrate.

Miss Dolly Davis left Monday for St. Louis to attend the fair.

If you want a good time in the good old way, come to Brunswick July 4, 1904.

A. F. Owen is quite sick at present. We hope to report him better soon.

The Amicitia club had a fine dance Monday evening. Brunswick young folks well know how to entertain.

Dr. H. E. Tatum has been confined to his room and bed for several days with rheumatism. The doctor is having quite a siege of it.

Lee Tatum of Glasgow has been with us the past week nursing his brother, Dr. H. E. Tatum. Mr. Tatum seems well pleased with Brunswick.

Ed. G. Owen, a very popular young man of Brunswick has been sent as station agent at Carlo, Mo. Ed is a good fellow and will serve the Wabash faithfully.

M. A. Knappenberger returned Tuesday from a tour through Arkansas and Indian Territory. He reports plenty of rain in those sections.

Miss Minnie Kendrick has been spending the week in the Prairie chapel neighborhood as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. D. M. Richards.

Mrs. B. M. Strub recently returned from Northwest Missouri in very poor health. She is improving at present and her many friends hope to hear of her speedy recovery.

Fishing in Grand river is the thing that takes now-a-days.

You often see a glad pair hie over the waves in a ferry-boat, spend the afternoon and come back with—a hook and line.

Mr. Pierce has purchased a gasoline yacht. It is a beauty and others will be purchased soon. Why not organize a yacht club? We've got the water if we only had a few more boats like Mr. Pierce's.

Miss Lacy Price, the efficient teacher of languages in Stephens college, Columbia, is spending vacation at home with her mother. She expects to attend the world's fair at St. Louis before resuming her duties in the schoolroom.

L. Watkins has begun the erection of a cottage on the old Sol Smith Russell lot. We understand C. W. Bowen will occupy the house when it is completed. The Russell home has not been torn down.

Our electric light plant is again in operation and the service is good. Our light men deserve much credit for the service they are now giving. Our plant has been in bad repair, but is at present in good shape.

Miss Ivy Crismond of Hale, who has been attending the world's fair in St. Louis during the past two weeks, stopped off at Brunswick Tuesday where she will remain for sometime with her brother, A. B. Crismond, and sister, Mrs. B. L. Kendrick. Miss Ivy reports a delightful visit to St. Louis and says the fair is grand.

Mr. editor:—We think Brunswick too good a town to be off the map. We want the people of Chariton county to know that we have a good town and we know the COURIER can surely tell them. If our items find space in your paper we will "come again." We want the people to know, through the columns of your paper, that our town is full of business and that we are prepared to treat each and everyone first-class whether they come for business or pleasure. "See our boots?"

Dalton Dots.

Mrs. J. M. Wilhite was in Salisbury Wednesday shopping.

S. H. Fleming is visiting his brother, C. R. Fleming of Monroe City, Mo.

Quite a jolly crowd of young and old folks was at the Schulte lake Tuesday.

How many have responded to the call to help fix up our cemetery?

Ed Grotjan and T. H. Carskadon shipped one carload of hogs to St. Louis Thursday.

Mrs. James Bentley has been quite sick for the past week with stomach trouble.

It is time our street commissioner was cutting the weeds on our streets as they are all in bloom.

S. F. Trammel of Salisbury was over Thursday looking after business for the Bankers' Life association.

Several carloads of rock came in for the bank building which are being unloaded by J. S. Campbell and Jas. Winkler.

July 20 is the date set for the musical entertainment by our home talent. Keep your eye on the date.

J. M. Wilhite, Dalton's popular druggist, and a man that may be disturbed, was in Salisbury Sunday.

A. L. Welch is unloading a carload of tiling which will be placed on the low lands of his farm.

It is high time Charles E. Jaeger, rural mail-carrier out on rural route No. 2, was taking the old blue hen back home.

Jacob Hauswirth of 11-2 miles northwest of Dalton had 20 of his young lambs eaten by rats. Mr. Hauswirth is now making it lively for the little lamb-eaters.

Come to Dalton July 4 and see one of the grandest displays of fireworks that was ever in the county. It will take place from the top of the high hill, and can be seen all over the county.

The Odd Fellows at this place went to Salisbury last night to give the initiatory degree to 12 of Prairie Hill's best citizens, after which the Keytesville team took charge and gave the first degree, Armstrong the second and Salisbury the third.

Summer Squibs.

J. A. Duroche and wife went to Kansas City last week and will not return until the 4th.

Saturday, June 25, Capt. F. M. Lewis passed his 67th milestone in the journey of life, and is as lively as a cricket.

Mrs. J. W. Tucker and daughter visited Mr. Tucker's sister, Mrs. J. E. Dempsey of Keytesville, last week.

Mrs. R. N. Linville was called home to Weatherford, Okla., Monday by a telegram announcing that her husband was sick, threatened with typhoid fever.

Jesse Gaines of Bogard changed cars here Thursday on his way to Brunswick to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Gaines, returning home Friday.

Quite a number volunteered to clean Center street for 2 1-2 blocks. The bandstand, speakers' stand and seats will be put in readiness for the large crowd that is expected here July 4.

John Walker, our marshal, was kept jumping sideways and other ways in his efforts to keep men and boys from shooting firecrackers on Center street, but didn't succeed.

A temperance evangelist held forth at the M. E. church in Summer several nights last week and had good audiences. He made strong appeals in behalf of temperance, but "snake medicine" was sold and used just as though he were not here.

McDonald Bros. received their opera chairs Friday and placed them in the new Pearl opera-house the same day. They add much to the appearance of Summer's pretty playhouse for which our village is greatly indebted to McDonald Bros.

Mr. and Mrs. Squibs spent two days at Meadville this week, and while there called on Dr. Johnson in his neat, new office and were shown some of the wonders of the X-ray machine. We saw the bones of our hands, but did not ask to be shown our brains for fear we would discover a vacuum where our gray matter is supposed to be.

Mrs. S. E. Robinson received a letter Tuesday morning from her husband stating that he and R. T. Buchanan and Wm. Smith were on an inspection trip over the land in South Dakota that is soon to be opened by the government to settlement. Mr. Robinson regards it as a fine country. He and party took dinner one day with the Indians, who had roasted dog, but neither of the Summerites partook of the canine portion of the feast.

John Quinton, the 10-year-old son of Harry Quinton of Livingston county, was shot and killed in the yard at his home Tuesday afternoon of last week by some party unknown to the coroner's jury. Suspicion points to the lad's stepmothers, who is about 18 years old. She was arrested Thursday on a warrant issued by Justice Sanders, who acted as coroner in conducting the inquest. A preliminary examination took place at Bedford Friday which resulted in holding the prisoner in the sum of $500 for her appearance for trial at the next term of circuit court.

In default of the required bail she was sent to jail at Chillicothe. Mrs. Quinton's maiden name was Petty, and she is a daughter of Jasper Petty of near Sumner. Stories concerning the tragedy are very conflicting.

U. A. House of Sumner is the defendant's attorney.

Echo Etchings.

Miss Julia Grady of Marceline visited at L. F. Ray's last week.

Frank Scott is on the sick list this week.

Henry Anstine sold a carload of cattle to Geo. Gucker at Marceline Monday.

M. J. Lain attended the Masonic lodge at Pee Dee Saturday night.

Geo. Green of Westville was in our neighborhood buying calves Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Porter went to Marceline Saturday and remained until Monday visiting relatives.

Misses Lena Wilson and Lotie Fox came home from Lagona Friday, their school having closed at that place.

Mrs. L. F. Ray returned home from Oklahoma City this week. She has been attending the bedside of her sick daughter, Mrs. Florence Kuppler, whom she left much better.

JULY and STREET FAIR KEYTESVILLE, MO.

The best Street Fair and Fourth of July Celebration ever held in Central Missouri will be held at Keytesville this year. More and better attractions are billed than have been offered by any other city. Our Street Fair and Fourth of July Celebration is under the direct management of the home business men, who contracted directly with each attraction, and others are being booked daily.

Good music by band.

Big balloon ascension and daring leap. Will drop 600 feet before the parachute opens.

Big show all day and at night.

Base ball by best teams in Chariton County.

Open air dancing.

Grand display of fireworks at night.

$2.50 gold brooch to best lady single driver.

$2.50 good brooch to best lady horseback rider.

$2.50 gold fountain pen to best single driving horse.

Watch to the one climbing greased pole.

100 yard foot race; 100 yard sack race; boys' race—not over 5 years old; boys' race—not over 10 years old; 100-yard fat mens' race; $1 prize to winner. Negro boys' race. Good belt to winner.

Good shows will be here to amuse both old and young. Don't miss this chance to have a big day of fun. Come and meet your friend and have a good time. Reduced rates on all railroads.

E. B. Kellogg, C. L. White, J. M. Halley, Committee.

Triplet Topics.

Mrs. N. B. Mahaney was a Bosworth visitor Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Sanders returned Monday from a two-weeks' visit to the world's fair.

J. A. Triplett and little son, Guy, are sight-seeing in St. Louis this week.

Miss Nellie Bowman returned home last week from a visit to relatives at Brookfield.

J. L. Gallatin and little daughter, Lela, went to St. Louis Monday to attend the world's fair.

Mrs. B. F. Fleetwood, accompanied by Miss Myrtle Fleetwood of Tacoma, Wash., returned from St. Louis Friday.

Miss Minnie Mason returned home Monday from Keytesville where she had been attending the review school.

Mrs. W. G. Brown returned Friday from a visit to relatives at Chillicothe, Gault and Half Rock, Mo.

Cecil Smith, accompanied by Leah Norvell, will leave the last of the week for LaJunta, Colo., where he has accepted a position in a railroad office.

Rev. J. H. Hardin, pastor of the Christian church at Richmond, gave an interesting address on the work of the Christian Missionary society at the Christian church Sunday night.

Musselfork Memoirs.

Ruth Cagle visited Miss Muncie Chrane Sunday.

The click of the binder is heard on every hand.

Miss Leda Hatfield visited near Brunswick Sunday.

Bruce Chrane made a business trip to Salisbury Monday.

Mrs. John McCollum is very low with consumption at this writing.

"Uncle" Pettis Sears will preach at the Union church Sunday.

Misses Fannie and Annie Moorman of Eccles visited B. F. Ford's family Monday night.

Thomas Foglesong is rejoicing over the arrival of a fine girl at his house Monday.

Lewis Johnson and family of Randolph county are visiting relatives at this place this week.

Mr. Seifert while wrestling with Victor Chrane was so unfortunate as to get a rib broken.

S. S. Kelso gave a party Monday night which was attended by many. All report a good time.

B. L. Kendrick of Brunswick was in our burg Wednesday representing his tombstone business.

Ernestine Seigle of Keytesville is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Chapman.

Pee Dee will not celebrate the 4th, but look out for August. There will be something doing here then.

Many would-be teachers of this place attended the teachers' examinations at Keytesville Friday and Saturday.

There will be a debate at the Cut-off schoolhouse. The subject is: "Resolved, That Washington was a better general than Napoleon."

Miss Pearl Naylor of Prairie Hill has been given the Cut-off school, Miss Lillie Barlow the Cooper and Bruce Chrane the Oldham.

Postmaster W. C. Gaston of Keytesville has been notified to arrange for desk room for at least three persons, and to hold a rural free delivery mail-carrier examination at Keytesville tomorrow, Saturday, July 2. This examination is to be held to select a carrier for rural route No. 3 out of Brunswick on which the initial trip will be made Friday, July 15. There are three applicants for carrier, viz: Wm. Shackelford, Jr., Henry Gabriel and J. H. Owen. Rural free delivery route No. 2 makes its first trip out of Brunswick to-day with Rev. M. Krattli as carrier.

Order of Publication.

STATE OF MISSOURI, ss.
COUNTY OF CHARITON, ss.
In the Circuit Court of Chariton County, Missouri, at Salisbury, September term, 1904.
Caroline Schumacher, Plaintiff, against
Steven Heilinger, Defendant.
At this day comes the plaintiff herein, by her attorneys, and files her petition and affidavit alleging, among other things, that the defendant, Steven Heilinger, is a non-resident of the State of Missouri, whereupon it is ordered by the clerk that said defendant be notified by publication that plaintiff has commenced a suit against him in this court the object and general nature of which is to obtain a judgment against defendant upon a certain promissory note dated the 2nd day of March, 1899, whereby the defendant promised, for value received, to pay plaintiff the sum of sixty-nine and 10/100 dollars, five months after date, with eight per cent interest per annum and ten per cent attorney fees thereon in case collection be made by suit; also to obtain a judgment against defendant upon a certain promissory note dated the 30th day of December, 1897, whereby defendant promised to pay one A. C. Steffen, or order, the sum of thirty-three and 25/100 dollars, six months after date, with eight per cent interest thereon, said note having been assigned to plaintiff; and also to obtain a judgment against defendant in the sum of thirty-two and 9/100 dollars, with six per cent interest thereon from the 28th day of September, 1899, upon an account for goods sold and delivered to defendant by one A. C. Steffen, the particulars of which account appear by an itemized statement thereof filed with the petition, said account having been assigned to plaintiff by said A. C. Steffen; and also to obtain a judgment against the defendant for the sum of twenty-one and 25/100 dollars, with eight per cent compound interest thereon since the 1st day of April, 1899, said sum being the amount paid by Joseph Abraham to the New Cambria State Bank on said day of April, 1899, upon a certain promissory note dated the 28th day of April, 1899, whereby the defendant as principal, together with one Ignatz Kempf and said Joseph Abraham as sureties, promised to pay said bank, or order, the sum of forty-five and 25/100 dollars ninety days after date, with eight per cent compound interest, the said bank, said Joseph Abraham having paid said sum of twenty-one and 25/100 dollars as surety for the defendant, and having assigned to plaintiff his claim and right of action against the defendant in reason thereof; and also to obtain a judgment against defendant for the sum of ten and 10/100 dollars, with six per cent interest from the 1st day of August, 1898, due on a certain account, the particulars of which appear by an itemized statement thereof filed with the petition, in favor of one Joseph Abraham and against the defendant, for goods sold and delivered by said Abraham to defendant, and for work and labor performed by said Abraham as a blacksmith for defendant, said account having been assigned by said Abraham to plaintiff; and also to obtain a judgment against defendant for the sum of eighty-seven dollars, with six per cent interest thereon from the first day of December, 1896, balance due on front of farm rented by defendant from one George Eager, until the first day of January, 1897, said Eager having assigned his demand against defendant in writing to plaintiff; and that the following described real estate situate in Chariton County, Missouri, to-wit: Eighty acres, the east half of the northwest quarter of section seventeen (17), township fifty-six (56), range seventeen (17), has been attached as the property of defendant, and that unless he be and appear at the next term of said court to be begun and hold at the court-house in the City of Salisbury, within the County of Chariton, on the 3rd day of September, 1904, and on or before the first day thereof, judgment will be rendered against him, and his property sold to satisfy the same. It is further ordered that a copy hereof be published in the CHARITON COURIER, a weekly newspaper published at the County of Chariton, for four weeks successively, the last insertion to be at least fifteen days before the commencement of said term of court.
Z. T. LAMKIN, Circuit Clerk.
Given under my hand and the seal of the Circuit Court of Chariton County, this 28th day of June, 1904.
Z. T. LAMKIN, Circuit Clerk.

Rock and barrel salt at L. B. Thrash's.